In today's turbulent economy the question is not whether or not to review your benefit program, but rather, how to ensure that your business has explored all opportunities for efficiencies and cost control. Finding an experienced advisor to overcome these challenges is critical to realizing your strategic employee benefit goals.

For over 30 years, the A.E. Mourad Agency, Inc. has been dedicated to providing appropriately designed and cost effective Employee Benefit Programs to mid-size public and private organizations. We operate seamlessly as an extension of our client's human resource functions to offer superb service and competitively priced products.

“Our team delivers employee benefit solutions that mitigate risk and improve efficiency. We offer a fresh, straightforward approach to managing employee benefit programs.”
